ONCE books either overcrowded limited shelf space or empty shelves yawned and waited for books. When one bookcase overflowed, a new one was purchased, and its gaping shelves were gradually filled. That was before the Globe-Wernicke period in bookcases. Now, books and their shelves come together. The bookcase grows space with the library. This is the modern way of building a library. This is the Globe-Wernicke idea.

To-day is the time to make plans for Labor day. Don't delay. Nowhere in the state will one find the pleasure and amusement that will be found at Intercity park on this day. One of the biggest celebrations that Barre has ever known will be conducted by the Central Labor union. The day will open with events in the forenoon at an early hour.

Arrangements have been made for the comfort and pleasure of everyone who attends the park. Athletic events will commence in the morning and continue through the day. Two baseball games will be played between the state champions, Barre athletics and two strong opponents will be played. Running races, track and field sports and a big state horse race are other things arranged for the day. The Standard orchestra, composed of talented musicians, will furnish music every minute of the day. At 1:30 in the afternoon S. Hollister Jackson, orator of the day, will deliver an address before the grand stand. This will be well worth hearing.
